Sermon Series: Who Am I

Sermon Title: I Am Loved – 1 John 4:7-11

The four types of New Testament love:

- A. Storge – The frosting on the cake!
- B. Phileo – The punch beside the cake!
- C. Eros – The CAKE!
- D. Agape – You can take MY cake.

How do I fulfill my calling to love as Christ loved me?

- I. Begin by receiving God's love as freely as He has offered it.

One of the most difficult challenges we face is receiving what God has so graciously given us. Instead of receiving the gift, we want to earn it through:

1. Legalism – We try to earn God's love by doing things right.
 2. Works – We try to earn God's love by doing right things.
- II. Embrace God's love by spending time in His presence and with His people.
 1. Don't mistake suffering for abandonment.
 2. Don't presume God's love means you will have an easy path.
 3. DO seek to serve people who are like you AND ESPECIALLY those who aren't.
 4. DO offer kindness to all those you find along the way.
 - III. Anchor yourself to God's foundational truths.
 1. God's love is unconditional.
 2. God's love casts out fear.
 3. God's love brings peace.
 4. God longs to meet us where we are.
