Sermon Notes

---

Speaker: Dr. Darin Wood

Sermon Series: God Speaks

Sermon Title: God Speaks: Christ and His Word are the Fullest Word – Hebrews 1:1-4

---

I. Hearing God means listening to what He's already said.

TWO LIES ABOUT GOD - There's a movement in modern thinking that says two false things:

1. God didn't mean what He said.
  2. God DID mean what He said, but these are different days and even He has to evolve. II. Hearing God demands I stop living in fear of others – 1 Kings 19:1-2
- II. God's voice is to be found in His Word. It is still the final Word and it doesn't change or evolve.
- God's voice will compel me toward service, not to being served.
  - God's voice will probably NOT be popular, nor should I expect it to be.
- III. Hearing God's voice requires I stop talking – 1 Kings 19:9-12
- IV. Hearing God compels me to surrender my own direction in favor of HIS! 1 Kings 19:15
- My path seeks ease – His voice calls me to transformation.
  - My path seeks comparison to others – His voice compels me to sanctification.
  - My path seeks immediate gratification – God's voice compels me toward a fulfilled gratification later – in Heaven.
- V. V. How can I tune my ears to hear His voice?
- Begin with confession.
  - Ask God for clarity.
  - Spend time in God's word and with His people.
  - Be patient in the waiting as you listen.
  - Be ready for action when God speaks.
