

TUNE UP YOUR WORK– COLOSSIANS 3:15-17, 23-24

THREE KINDS OF WORKERS:

- Those who see work as a means to an end.
- Those who see work as drudgery to be overcome.
- Those who see work as a calling from God.

IF I'M GOING TO TUNE UP MY WORK, I NEED TO TUNE UP MY HEART ABOUT IT.

How?

I. I'll put Christ at the center of my work! Colossians 3:15-16

What changes when I let the peace of Christ rule?

- My vision changes.
- My perspective changes.
- My future changes.

II. I'll honor Christ with an attitude of service. Colossians 3:17

THE WORLD SAYS:	BUT GOD SAYS:
"I have to go to work . . ."	"You get to go to work . . ."
My work is to get people to serve me and to gain power	Your work is to serve others and empower others
To make a name for myself	To glorify God
To earn a living	To earn an eternal reward

III. I'll honor Christ at work with an attitude of worship! Colossians 3:17b

When it's My name at stake, that's one thing. But when it's Jesus' reputation at stake, that's another!

IV. I'll honor Christ with an attitude of gratitude – Colossians 3:17
