Do They Deserve My Respect?

Acts 10:9-34; 11:1-17; 1 Peter 2:11-17

Memory Verse: Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

Philippians 2:3-4

Level of Biblical Learning:

Because God values all nationalities and cultures, I will respect and value each person.

There are times when we see another person and we judge them because they are different. Maybe they have different hair, different teeth, or speak differently but they are all God's creations. Peter, who was a Jew, was not supposed to go talk to Gentiles because that was against the law but God told Peter that everything that He made is clean. Peter went to talk to these people and he showed them what God wanted them to do. Just like Peter, we should not be afraid to talk to people that are different and we should respect them because God loves every single person and He made us all!
