Tithing is a command. God requires the full 10%. Everything you have, including money, is a gift from God. What do you think is the difference between tithe and offering?

Question of the week:

Do you get an allowance or get paid for doing odd jobs around the house or in your neighborhood? Did you know that you can tithe 10% of your money to God. To figure how much 10% of your earnings is just divide the total amount of money you have by 10. So....., what is 10% of $5.00?
