Why Respect Those Who Are Different?

Luke 10:25-37

Memory Verse:

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. Philippians 2:3-4

Level of Biblical Learning:

God wants people to look for opportunities to help people of all ethnicities and cultures. As God's children, we are here to share God's love with people no matter their differences. In Luke 10, we find the parable of the good Samaritan. The Samaritan helped a Jewish man no matter how different they were from each other and no matter what the law said because Samaritans were not supposed to be friends with the Jewish. Every one of us is different in many ways. We have different cultures and different ethnicities but we all have the same Creator so we should show respect to every single person we come in contact with.
