Can the Bible Be Fun?

Memory Verse:

How sweet are Your words to my taste,
sweeter than honey to my mouth!
Through Your precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
Psalm 119: 103-105

Bible Passage:
Ezekiel 37:1-10

Ezekiel, a priest and a prophet, ministers during the darkest days of Judah's history: the seventy-year period of Babylonian captivity. Carried to Babylon before the final assault on Jerusalem, Ezekiel uses prophesies, parables, signs, and symbols to dramatize God's message to His exiled people. Though they are like dry bones in the sun, God will reassemble them and breathe life into the nation once again. Present judgment will be followed by future glory so that "you shall know that I am the LORD (6-7).
